- ☒ by a preponderance of the evidence the defendant is a serious flight risk and require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

PART I -- FINDINGS OF FACT

- ☐ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an)other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Alternative Findings

- ☐ (1) 18 U.S.C. 3142(e)(3): There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense

PART II -- WRITTEN STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

(Check one or both, as applicable.)

- ☒ (1) I find that the credible testimony and information³ submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence as to danger that:
Although the defendant provided conflicting information to the pretrial services officer about his use of drugs and alcohol, he admitted to daily use of methamphetamine. His criminal history also includes multiple convictions for driving with a suspended license. His drivers license has been suspended indefinitely. He also has convictions for use/possession of drug paraphenalia. The defendant's substance abuse and the risk that he will drive while under the influence pose a danger to the community that cannot be adequately addressed by conditions of release.
- ☒ (2) I find that a preponderance of the evidence as to risk of flight that:
 - ☐ The defendant has no significant contacts in the District of Arizona.
 - ☒ The defendant has no resources in the United States from which he/she might make a bond reasonably calculated to assure his/her future appearance.
 - ☒ The defendant has a prior criminal history.
 - ☒ There is a record of prior failure to appear in court as ordered.
 - ☐ The defendant attempted to evade law enforcement contact by fleeing from law enforcement.
 - ☐ The defendant is facing a minimum mandatory of _____ incarceration and a maximum of _____.
- ☐ The defendant does not dispute the information contained in the Pretrial Services Report, except:

³The rules concerning admissibility of evidence in criminal trials do not apply to the presentation and consideration of information at the [detention] hearing. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). See 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) for the factors to be taken into account.

In addition:

The defendant's criminal history includes numerous charges for failure to appear, fleeing a traffic officer, and thirty fail to pay/appear suspensions from the Phoenix City Court and his drivers license has been suspended indefinitely. This history demonstrates that the defendant does not comply with court orders and that he poses a risk of flight that cannot be addressed by conditions of release.

The Court incorporates by reference the findings of the Pretrial Services Agency which were reviewed by the Court at the time of the hearing in this matter.

PART III -- DIRECTIONS REGARDING DETENTION

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his/her designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

PART IV -- APPEALS AND THIRD PARTY RELEASE

IT IS ORDERED that should an appeal of this detention order be filed with the District Court, it is counsel's responsibility to deliver a copy of the motion for review/reconsideration to Pretrial Services at least one day prior to the hearing set before the District Court. Pursuant to Rule 59(a), FED.R.CRIM.P., effective December 1, 2009, Defendant shall have fourteen (14) days from the date of service of a copy of this order or after the oral order is stated on the record within which to file specific written objections with the district court. Failure to timely file objections in accordance with Rule 59(a) may waive the right to review. 59(a), FED.R.CRIM.P.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if a release to a third party is to be considered, it is counsel's responsibility to notify Pretrial Services sufficiently in advance of the hearing before the District Court to allow Pretrial Services an opportunity to interview and investigate the potential third party custodian.

DATED this 26th day of June, 2013.
